

Saleh Abdulaziz Al-Jasser

Position: Managing Partner

Saleh is the Managing Partner at Al-Jasser & Al-Dakhil Group, a Saudi accounting and auditing firm, where he oversees, guides, and supports a team of over 70 professional auditors and consultants. Saleh brings extensive experience in audit, advisory services, and complex accounting issues

Saleh has undertaken a range of governmental and commercial tasks, including advising on business development practices and compliance in Saudi Arabia, risk assessment and internal audits, external audits, transitioning from a cash basis to an accrual basis, handling Zakat and tax objections, forensic accounting, and arranging compliance and financial strategies for various business sectors, including family businesses and restructuring efforts.

Saleh worked at KPMG Company, where he served as a team leader for audit engagements overseeing both listed and non-listed companies. He managed a diverse portfolio of large, medium, and small enterprises across various sectors, including retail, information technology, construction, and industrial and logistics services. Additionally, Saleh served as a Senior Advisor for tax and customs evasion at the Zakat, Tax, and Customs Authority, and represented multiple entities on boards of directors and internal audit committees.

Saleh has worked on various complex tax matters, including all forms of income tax and value-added tax (VAT), as well as VAT objections. He has provided advisory services to multinational corporations and major family-owned businesses in Saudi Arabia on the accounting aspects of crisis management.
